CORONER'S INQUEST FINDING

Sheriff-Coroner David O. Livingston announces that a coroner's jury has reached a finding in the July 4, 2017 death of 42-year-old Zepp McKinley Crouchet of El Cerrito. The finding of the jury is that the death is - at the hands of another person, other than by accident.

The coroner's jury reached a verdict after hearing the testimony of witnesses called by the hearing officer, Matthew Guichard.

A coroner's inquest, which Sheriff-Coroner Livingston convenes in fatal incidents involving peace officers, is a public hearing, during which a jury rules on the manner of a person's death. Jury members can choose from the following four options when making their finding:

- Accident
- Suicide
- Natural Causes
- At the hands of another person, other than by accident.
