

Biography

Alicia Lacey-Oha

Alicia Lacey-Oha is a native of San Francisco. She graduated from Balboa High School and received honors academically and in basketball.

In 2021, Alicia received her master's degree in public administration.

Alicia has been a resident of Antioch since 2005 and is the mother of four young adult children and grandmother of two.

In her professional career she has been employed with the federal government holding many positions, such as Legal Assistant and Immigration Services Officer.

Under the executive order of the President of the United States, Alicia served in two critical mission assignments during the height of COVID-19 and social unrest. In 2022, she received the Hubert Humphrey public service award.

Alicia is a licensed minister, serving people from all backgrounds. She has protested with NAACP against police brutality in Pittsburg and in stopping the violence events in San Francisco's Bayview Hunters Point. She serves as associate minister at Cornerstone Baptist Church, in Bayview Hunters Point. She is the founder and director of Love A Life Outreach Ministries, Inc.

Reason For Wanting To Serve The Antioch Community, etc.

Alicia wants to be a part of the solution. Offer her assistance in reforming and transforming APD. Also, provide support to residents and victims of police misconduct.