Building Bridges & Tearing Down Barriers

A Symposium Looking at Bridging the Divide and Re-imagining Police-Community Relations

September 24, 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Delta Bay Church of Christ

913 Sunset Drive · Antioch, CA

In recent years, the nation has witnessed several unfortunate encounters between police and citizens that have eroded the public trust. Given current publicized events and this challenging environment now is the right time to come together as one city and to have a healthy dialogue about 21st Century policing.

The Antioch Community Team (ACT) invites you to join us for the symposium Building Bridges & Tearing Down Barriers focusing on the first of six pillars, Building Trust/Legitimacy, of President Obama's Policing in the 21st Century. The primary goal of the symposium is to have a proactive community dialogue that ensures trust among law enforcement and communities-at-large via a panel discussion.

Sponsored by ACT in partnership with the Contra Costa Alumnae Chapter (CCAC), Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Greatness Rediscovered in Our Time (G.R.I.O.T.), law enforcement, residents of Contra Costa and the Greater Bay Area.
